VALUATION DATA

- Property Valuation: The valuation data includes the property's assessment value, which is the basis for calculating property taxes. The valuation date is July 01, 2018.

- Taxable Value: This is the total value of the property as determined by the assessment roll, which includes the property's land and improvements.

- Exemption Codes: Exemption codes are assigned to properties that qualify for tax exemptions, such as those owned by senior citizens or by special districts such as fire districts.

- Account Numbers: Each property is assigned an account number for identification and record-keeping purposes.

Uniform Percent of Value: The uniform percent of value is 100.00, indicating that the valuation is expressed as a percentage of the market value of similar properties in the same area.

Special Districts: Special districts, such as fire districts, are listed where applicable, indicating that the property is subject to taxation by those districts.

Conclusion

The document contains a list of properties with their respective parcel numbers, land descriptions, assessment data, and taxable values. Each entry includes information such as the property location, ownership details, and valuation dates. This information is crucial for property tax assessments and provides a clear record of taxable properties within the specified county and town boundaries.
