

Driveway Snowplowing

It is very important that during winter months residents do not deposit snow into the roadway when clearing their driveways. Whether you are clearing the driveway yourself or a contractor is handling it for you make sure the snow is cleared well off the shoulder of the roadway so it does not create a road hazard for oncoming traffic. Plowing or snow blowing into or across the street is unsafe, and against the law.