

At 7:00 p.m. Supervisor Carges called to order a public hearing located at the Town Hall, 18 State Street, Brockport, New York on Tuesday, June 23, 2015. The purpose of the public hearing was to review the application from Iroquois Rock Products, Inc. to renew their Excavation Permit in the Town of Sweden.

Town Board Members present were Supervisor Robert Carges, Councilperson Rebecca Donohue, Councilperson Robert Muesebeck and Councilperson Donald Roberts, Jr. Councilperson Danielle Windus-Cook was absent. Also present were Finance Director Leisa Strabel, Superintendent of Highways Brian Ingraham, Town Attorney Jim Bell and Town Clerk Karen Sweeting.

Visitors present were Deputy Village Mayor Bill Andrews, Annie Crane, Jack Merritt, Joan Hamlin, Brockport Ambulance Chief Cody Dean with ambulance members Colin Arthur, Penny Norton and Susan Dann, John Swierkos representing Iroquois Rock Products, Pete Sharpe, Steven Hall and Seymour Library Director Carl Gouveia.

Supervisor Carges asked Town Clerk Karen Sweeting to read the legal notice published in the Town newspaper. Notice was read.

Mr. Carges introduced John Swierkos from Iroquois Rock Products, Inc. Mr. Swierkos stated they are continuing with the same processes they have done in the past – commercial asphalt, stone, etc. The key contact for the site in Sweden is Kris Pangrazio. Mr. Swierkos has met with Mr. Pangrazio to check setbacks close to the Colby Street properties. The reclamation program is in good standing and they are DEC compliant. Iroquois Rock has four business units under their umbrella. Mr. Swierkos extended an open invitation for anyone to tour the site.

No other comments.

Supervisor Carges closed the public hearing at 7:12 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Karen M. Sweeting
Town Clerk
